The Nightmare Factory

I remember how I felt alive, being near you. The night was very pleasant, at times the moon shining out full and clear, all Nature so calm in itself, the early summer grass so rich, and foliage of the trees-yet there the battle raging, and many good fellows lying helpless, with new accessions to them, and every minute amid the rattle of muskets and crash of cannon, for there was an artillery contest too, the red life-blood oozing out from heads or trunks or limbs upon that green and dew-cool grass.

One Remarkable Year

The emotions expressed by the characters are almost ludicrously over-the-top, the pacing is glacial in some parts and far too fast in others, and there is an over-abundance of description of the landscape. Montreal: McGill University dissertation.
