No matter what you think of Weisman's writing style not a problem at all for me - I liked it and thought it helped keep a lot of information that otherwise might be overwhelming nicely flowing this is an essential historical account of a few people taking big chances and the rest of us being much better off for it. But she bucks this value judgment, focusing instead on the psychology at work behind the interplay of interaction and confrontation between wildly different materials that relate to a confusing set of pop cultural references.

But in this "weakpoint" also lies the "strongpoint" of the chosen multi-method. One major advantage I find from studying a game collection from a famous tournament is the overall strength of the play. La voiture sera a ma disposition de huit heures du matin a
